DIMENSIONS DO COUNT

It's big! It's not just science, it's cultivated innovation through harvested nature. Bellarosa roses are exactly what they seem: Big! This isn't just a catchy phrase, it's a fact! At our farm, dimensions truly matter.

Our flower heads are the largest in the industry, and our extraordinarily long rose stems will amaze every onlooker. Don't just take our word for it, subject them to x-rays and see for yourself. It's all the work of nature and our innovative team.
